

NO SALE MADE OF V & T

The Appeal is in a position to say that the recent report of the sale of the Virginia and Truckee railway to the Western Pacific is without foundation in fact. The road not only has not been sold, but the management is making every preparation to extend its business in the southern country as soon as possible.

Money has been spent on surveys, roads have been repaired and every inducement is being held out by the company to secure the trade of the growing districts between this city, Reno and Elko. The invasion of the territory by the Southern Pacific, from the east side has prompted the V. & T. company to make every effort to head off its formidable rival by securing to itself before too late the territory that rightfully belongs to Carson City and the V. & T. The extension to Minden was one of the first moves, and others are to be made in the near future, the precise nature of which are not announced.

IGNORANCE OR MALICE

The resolutions and platform adopted by the Republican county convention delegates emphatically denies that an offer was made by the Democratic state convention delegates to remove the office of State university regents from the sphere of politics. The framers of the document should certainly be aware that the Democratic state convention nominated only two candidates for regents for the announced purpose of removing that office from partisanship, but the Republican state convention paid no heed to the offer, nominating four candidates and the Democratic State Central Committee was then compelled to appoint two more nominees.—Chronicle.

HERCULES' NOW 'DIETRICH'

The following of interest to those who follow the mine news, appears in the Nevada Chronicle, issue of Sept. 26th:

RENO BROOKERS' BUNCO GAME

George Dietrich, returned from Reno Monday and says that taking advantage of the excitement over the recent rich discoveries in Herkules district, Lyon county, brokers in the Riverside town have been unloading cords of stock in mines in Herkules district, Alpine county, Cal., representing that it is identical with that in Lyon county. To block this game the name of the district in this state has been changed to Dietrich.

"Chicago-Nevada Mining and Milling Company is the title of the only incorporation so far organized to operate in Dietrich district, Lyon county, with a capital of 300,000 shares of the par value of $1 per share. The board of directors and officers are, M. A. Breeden, president, James Christensen, treasurer, Fred Mc Guerin, secretary; A. J. Weber and Joseph Dietrich, M. A. Breeden, is attorney general of Utah, and James Christensen is treasurer of that state."

STENSLAND RECEIVES HEAVY SENTENCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Paul O. Stensland, to whose self confessed embezzlement of $400,000 was due chiefly to the collapse of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary within three hours after his arrival in Chicago from the east and before another three hours had passed the convicted bank president had begun service of sentence at Joliet.

Stensland pleaded guilty to two indictments, one charging embezzlement and the other charging violation of the state banking laws. A fine of $120 was imposed upon the latter charge which was based upon acceptance of $60 in deposits after the bank was insolvent.

This sentence, however, which will expire concurrently with the one due to him and one to ten years, making the longest term the prisoner will be compelled to serve not more than ten years.

KNEW THE ANSWER

Yesterday in the class in ancient history in the Carson City public school, among the questions propounded to the class was this one: Describe the Council of the Four Hundred. One bright young miss, it must have been a girl, answered: The council of the Four Hundred was composed of "400" people, the nice people of Athens.

FRANK P. MANNIX IN RENO

Frank P. Mannix, fusion party candidate for secretary of State is in Reno and in an interview published in the Journal is quoted as saying in part, Governor Sparks is a sure winner and George Bartlett for congress has his opponent beaten at the post. As to his chances of success the speaker was very modest. He declared his confidence, however in making a strong fight.

WILL RE-AL THEATRE

RENO, Sept. 27.—The owners of McKissicks theatre, who contemplated remodeling it into a hotel, have abandoned their plans and will continue it as a play house. Had they carried out their plans the city would have been left without a theatre for traveling companies.

FRANK P. LANGAN MAKES FRIENDS EVERYWHERE

Frank P. Langan, Fusion nominee for judge of the first judicial district the bench of which is now occupied by Judge Murphy, came down from Virginia City this morning and will remain several days.

Langan is the man that defended the right to law before Judge Murphy, who declared it unconstitutional.

The case was appealed to the Supreme court and Langan assisted the attorney general, J. G. Sweeney, until the case was disposed of in that tribunal and the law was placed on the statute books.

He is an affable and agreeable gentleman, one of the best read lawyers in the state and has the faculty of making friends that few men possess.

The Appeal bespeaks for him the careful consideration of the voters of this county, as well as the other 10 counties in the district.

(Proposed and passed by the Twenty-first session of the Nevada Legislature, March 3, 1905.)

The Legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation on all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, when not patented, the proceeds alone of which shall be assessed and taxed, and when patented, one patented mine shall be assessed at not less than five hundred dollars ($500), except when one hundred dollars ($100) in labor has been actually performed on such patented mine during the year, in addition to the tax upon the net proceeds, and also, excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific or other charitable purposes.

MIRTH AND FUN AT THE OPERA HOUSE

For mirth provoking, laugh producing and genuinely enjoyable comedy. All the Comforts of Home, as presented last evening by the Harper company, captured the prize. Every part was excellently cast. Miss Harper's conception of the role of the frivolous Fifi being portrayed to life.

Joseph Detrick, as the henpecked husband made the character so life like that the audience laughed until tears ran down the cheeks of nearly everyone present. Harry Bradley was expertly funny as the pervers professor and proved that he is master of the art of delineation of character. Walter Newman was all that could be desired in the part of nephew who was always getting into trouble and as easily getting out of it.

Sam Howard is always good and he did not disappoint his admirers last night. G. M. Kohler as the "White Boy" was gushy enough to suit the most fastidious taste of "dilettante" and his work was appreciated by all. Leslie Glenn made the best of a minor part and the ladies, one and all acquitted themselves with credit. In fact, there is little for the feminine portion of the cast with the exception of the part of Mrs. Henderson, which was perfectly carried out by Miss Harriet Browne.

Tonight Blue Jeans will be presented and it is one of those attractive rural comedies which will please everybody.

FUSION MEN MAKE A HIT

GOVERNOR SPARKS, GEO. A. BARTLETT, JAMES G. SWEENEY, RICHARD STODDARD AND DAVE RYAN REACH TUSCARORA AND ARE ACCORDED RECEPTION.

ELKO, Sept. 27.—The distinguished party of Democratic-Silver nominees on the state ticket, comprising Governor Sparks, George A. Bartlett, for Congress; Richard Stoddard, for attorney general; James G. Sweeney, for supreme judge and Dave Ryan, for state treasurer spoke at Tuscarora before a crowded and enthusiastic gathering of citizens, who greeted the candidates with cheers and listened to them with the closest attention.

The candidates went into Tuscarora on an automobile, had the misfortune to be delayed five times because of the breaking down of the machine, but they got there in time, just the same and found the town abuzz with bonfires and raised by brass bands. The reception accorded them collectively and individually is positive indication that they are all winners in that section. Nothing could have been more enthusiastic.

When John Sparks appeared on the platform of the largest hall in Tuscarora, he was not even standing when the crowd was occupied and there was scarcely breathing space. As the honored standard bearer of the fusion parties and the citizen respected by the entire state, rose to his feet he was greeted by a storm of applause which lasted into minutes. Three times he started to speak before the cheering subsided sufficiently to permit him to be heard. He made a deep impression with his address which was dignified, serious and wise.

It was not hard for George Bartlett to persuade his hearers that he is the right one to place in congress next November. His force of personality and skill in telling of the vital issues of today; his frank and honest manner of addressing the people were subjects of commendable comment on every hand.

James Sweeney is a favorite and will be elected if the issue of the election lies in Tuscarora and vicinity. His popularity is abundant and his judicial learning is beyond question.

Richard Stoddard and Dave Ryan also made good impressions. The lawyer from Reno, who is nominee for attorney general, is particularly strong here and his friends greeted him with hearty cheers.

F. M. Mannix, the nominee for secretary of state, will join the party at Wells, where another rousing rally will be held.
